CONSULTANTS EN IMMIGRATION DU CANADA

Who are we?

Earl Blaney is a Registered Immigration Consultant (RCIC). He is registered with Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council (ICCRC) with number R509392.

Earl Blaney has the unique background of working with international students abroad as well as working as an International Student Advisor in Canada as an RCIC.

He has an exceptional understanding of the full spectrum of international admissions and an extraordinary grasp of immigration law. After a decade abroad preparing immigration applications he has returned to his native home of Canada.

Angela Oakey is a partner and has extensive experience while working in the field of education. She is highly organized and gives clear directions to clients who are seeking immigration assistance. Angela is excellent following up with clients and is pleasant and easy to work with. She has organized successful study in Canada fairs to promote Canadian education to international students.

Together Earl Blaney and Angela Oakey run The Canada Network and offer a service that will certainly exceed your expectations!

Price List

Below are our current prices for 2017. Prices are displayed in a range as it does depend on the student's country of origin as some embassies require more supporting documentation than others.

Study Permit $500-$800

CAIPS notes (Previous Visa Refusals) $50

High Risk Applications/Regions

For previous refusals we will look at the application and make recommendations on how to proceed. We specialize in applications to embassies that have high refusal rates and overcoming past refusals. Prices vary on a case-by-case basis.

"I would like to thank Earl and Angela for helping me achieve my goal. To be accepted in a Masters degree here in Canada... It is never too late for anyone who is dedicated to achieve their dreams in life..."

María Elizabeth Concepción, student at Fairleigh Dickinson University

"Thank you to The Canada Network for assisting me in processing my student visa. This is a dream come true!"

Lilia Gonzales, student at Conestoga College
